

CHAPTER 1

A Great Wealth Transfer

Gold Rain, Diamonds, and a Great Wealth Transfer

God wants success for you!

“For I know the plans I have for you,” declares the LORD, “plans to prosper you and not to harm you, plans to give you hope and a future.”
—Jeremiah 29:11 (ESV)

The Lord has revealed to me through prophetic dreams and divine encounters the coming wealth transfer and how it will bring His justice to the earth.

ⁱ This is a message I have been entrusted with, a revelation that forms the core of I WILL FIGHT. In one such prophetic dream, God showed me that He has given His people a whistle—a symbol of authority—and that this whistle requires great wealth to function in gathering and mobilizing souls for His Kingdom.ⁱⁱ

I Will Fight: Ten Strategies to Fight for Your Success by Greg Lancaster

What the Lord has revealed to me has since been affirmed by other prophetic voices. John Kilpatrick, Kent Christmas, the Apostolic Council of Prophetic Elders, and others have spoken about this divine shift, confirming what God had already shown me. Their prophetic words align with the vision God entrusted to me. It is with this divine mandate that I am writing this book—to help you prepare, be positioned, and equipped for the abundant provision and wealth transfer that is soon to unfold.

I'll never forget my younger years playing football and how the coach used something seemingly simple—a whistle—to move the entire team in the direction and position he wanted. You see this in all sports: a referee stands on the field or court, dressed in a uniform distinct from the players, observing everything that happens. They're present but detached, quietly watching every move.

But when something goes wrong or violates the rules, suddenly, the referee blows the whistle and throws a marker—a flag—onto the ground. Instantly, everything stops. The players on both teams, the other referees, the coaches, the bench players, the fans in the stands, the TV cameras broadcasting the game to viewers around the world, and the fans sitting at home or streaming the game—all attention is fixed on the one holding the whistle.

by Greg Lancaster

Why? Because whatever comes out of the mouth of the one with the whistle will shift the entire game and change everything for everyone.

Referees who quietly watch the game allow coaches to call their own plays, but the moment they blow their whistle, everyone knows that the person with the whistle has the authority to change everything.

Did you know that God has a whistle? If you didn't, you're not alone. I didn't realize God had a whistle until He revealed it to me in a dream. Let me share what He showed me and why I am writing this book, in the hope of encouraging you to pursue the success God desires for your life, business, or ministry.ⁱⁱⁱ

The Dream of the Whistle

In the dream, I was sitting up in a bed in what I call my secret place, which was in a quiet place I had set aside to seek the Lord's voice and escape the noise of the world. The bed was neatly made, with a bedspread pulled tight. The Lord handed me a large glass whistle and told me to blow it.

When I blew the whistle, all I could hear was the sound of air passing through it—there was no whistle sound. It was silent. The Lord then told me that it would take diamonds to make the whistle work. At first, my faith wavered as I thought, “Diamonds? That’s a lot of...” But before I could finish the thought, I stopped myself and began to move in faith—the kind of faith God calls all believers to have.

I placed my hands over the bedspread and declared, “Let there be diamonds!” Instantly, diamonds appeared on the bedspread before me. These weren’t polished diamonds like those you’d find in a jewelry store but rough diamonds—raw, uncut, and full of potential value. I gathered them with both hands and began pouring them into the whistle God had given me. As I poured, I thought, “This is a lot of wealth,” but without hesitation, I continued until the whistle was full.

At that moment, I realized I was awake—but still in the dream—and I felt an urgent need to write down what God had shown me before the memory faded. As I began to write, people started coming into my Secret Place.^{iv} They were eager—almost aggressive—to know everything God had revealed. They were hungry for His words and wisdom.

I knew, however, that if I didn’t write down what God had shown me immediately, the vision could slip away forever. People began pushing their way into the room, and I had to push the door shut to keep them out. As more people pressed against the door, I had to push harder and harder to hold them back. Finally, I succeeded. But just as I was about to start writing, someone who had been hiding in the closet emerged. I gently led them out, ensuring the space was clear. Only then did I begin writing.

I remained calm, knowing that if I had gotten angry or upset with the people, the Holy Spirit would have lifted, and I would not have been able to remember what God had said to me.

At that moment, I woke fully and immediately recorded everything God had shown me to ensure I wouldn't lose it. Now, I'm sharing it with you.^v As I searched the Scriptures afterward, I discovered that God indeed has a whistle.

God's Whistle in Scripture

“I will whistle for them and gather them in, for I have redeemed them, and they shall be as many as they were before.” — Zechariah 10:8 (ESV)

The greatest harvest the earth has ever known is just ahead of us. It is prophesied that this harvest will include one billion young people and many others.^{vi} This could be the much-anticipated “end-time harvest,” and regardless, it will happen within our lifetime.

As the Lord showed me, the whistle God has given me, and others, requires great wealth to function. When we pour that wealth into God's whistle—His sovereignly chosen methods to get His message out—souls will respond. They'll run to God with such urgency that nothing will stop them, even removing doors from hinges to reach Him.

This divine strategy for wealth transfer is not random. The Lord revealed to me that business owners who have committed injustices will feel compelled to provide restitution for wrongs committed decades ago as part of this wealth transfer.^{vii} These moments of divine justice will bring freedom and provision to those who have suffered under financial oppression.

God's about to give a wealth transfer in this last day!
— John Kilpatrick

“God is about to bring wealth to His people in ways you can’t imagine... God said that this wealth in the last days is going to be transferred onto the Saints of God. There's going to be a wealth transfer and God's going to make a host of His last day church to come into great wealth. You have been faithful over the few. You have tithed. You've given offerings. You've given towards building programs. You've helped the poor. You've given gifts. And God said now [He is] about to pour out upon you restoration and blessings like you've never had them before. God sent me here as a prophet to say to you, God is about to give a wealth transfer in these last days, and you need to believe it!”

Shaken Nations and A Wealth Transfer

“Glory Shaking. Many voices are prophesying shakings to come. Many nations will be shaken. Haggai 2:6-7. This will result in a glory shaken, or glorious shaking for the body of Christ. Everything that can be shaken will be shaken, but it will result in great glory for the Kingdom of God. As the nations shake, many will come to Christ. There will be a great awakening from the shaken, so, do not be afraid in the midst of the shaking. God is using this shaking to realign nations. Trust God! In the last season satan was shaking the nations, but now God is going to do the shaking. This will result in a wealth transfer that can be used for the great harvest of the nations.”

— Prophetic Word, Apostolic Council of Prophetic Elders, 2022^x

Dream: Justice Brings Gold Rain

The Lord showed me in a dream, on December 28, 2016, that most people will grow faint in their expectation of ever seeing justice. They will reach a point where, no matter what they are told or see, they will believe that justice will never come upon those who continually commit evil.

In the dream, He had me standing in a courtroom where we were waiting for justice. Everyone eventually left the courtroom, having given up hope. I, too, was weary but decided to stay and hear the judge’s decision. The attorney appearing before the judge turned to me and said that justice would indeed come. However, this didn’t stir me to have high expectations because we had all witnessed so much evil without justice being served. Yet, as soon as the attorney turned back toward the judge, the judge’s gavel slammed down on the bench, and justice was finally served on the evildoers.

I Will Fight: Ten Strategies to Fight for Your Success by Greg Lancaster

As if this wasn't enough to cause great celebration, before we could even begin to rejoice, gold shavings began to rain down in the courtroom the moment the judge's gavel struck the bench. This gold rain was so thick that you couldn't see across the courtroom. The attorney, who had assured me that justice would come, turned back toward me. The gold rain parted over his head like water would be in a downpour. He looked at me and said, "See? I told you justice would come."^{xi}

The Lord told me that when He serves justice on the evil we have seen—and will see—it will release great wealth, specifically gold rain. This justice will trigger a great wealth transfer.”

Preparing for the Wealth Transfer

God's reason for orchestrating this great wealth transfer is to fund His whistle [how He will divinely choose to gather the nations] and bring in the harvest. Those who desire to be part of this must be willing and prepared. God has shown me that He will touch those with great wealth with His presence and glory. Inspired by His goodness, they will give generously—so much that many will never be in need again.

However, He also revealed that many who want to give realize that the recipients often lack the wisdom, knowledge, and integrity to handle the wealth properly. Therefore, God will lead some to distribute something like “mini grants” to help people grow in integrity and wisdom. As they demonstrate growth, they will receive more until they are equipped to manage greater wealth.^{xii}

Without such preparation, wealth would slip through their hands like water running through holes in a bag.^{xiii}

It appears, God wants to entrust this increase only to those who have matured enough to steward it well. This is one of the reasons I am writing I WILL FIGHT: to help you prepare for what is coming and equip you to be part of this great wealth transfer.

“Success is not measured by the money in one’s bank account; it is measured by what you accomplish with what has been entrusted to you during your lifetime.

Even the world knows that money is not the only measure of true success. Most of them in business want much more than money for their labors. Simple things like joy, a happy home life, and meaningful friendships are an important part of the life of true prosperity... mixed into this is the cry for significance.” — Bill Johnson^{xiv}

Success requires a fighting spirit. It’s not for those who live distracted lives, consumed by media, idle chatter, or meaningless relationships. Success comes to those who fight the good fight of faith, persist, and follow a clear battle plan.
